

The Gift of Peace

Three times, Lord!

In Sunday's gospel you greeted us not once,
Not twice, but three times with the words,
Peace be with you!

These are words I need and love to hear, Lord, and especially when they come from your lips, intended for my ears and my heart....

I need your peace
to nudge me out of yesterday, help me through today and point me towards tomorrow....

I need your peace in my relationships, Lord, in my family, in my neighbourhood, in my parish, at my school, where I work and where I play:
I need your peace to mend and reconcile what comes between me and my family, friends, neighbours and colleagues....

I need your peace, Lord,
To calm my anxious fears,
To steady my unsure steps,
To settle my mind's confusion
And to heal my aching heart...

I need your peace, Lord,
To forgive my sins and failings,
To redirect my wayward path,,
To ease my guilt and shame....

I need your peace, Lord:
Enough to share with those in need,
With those who turn to me for help When what they truly seek
Is the peace that's only yours to give. Amen
