

Waiting in Lent

The waiting is the hard part, Lord.
I know you're there, by my side
but I think sometimes I'm waiting to see you with my eyes
when you're waiting
to reveal yourself in my heart.
I'm waiting to hear your voice
in my ears, when you are waiting to speak to me in the scriptures.

This Lent, Lord, teach me to wait
for your presence, beside me,
around me, within me.
Keep me mindful that it is only in the stillness, Lord, only in the quiet
that I will find you.

You wait for me with help for this day's problems....
You wait for me with mercy for my failings....
You wait for me with healing for my hurts....
You wait for me with peace to ease my sadness....
You wait for me with light to dispel my darkness...
You wait for me with grace to bless all I undertake....
You wait for me to make some time and find a place where I might rest and wait for you....

And in the quiet, in the stillness
let me know your peace, even in the waiting for me:
in my waiting for you and in your waiting for me.
