In November we honour the souls of our loved ones who have died. For some their memories are vivid and frequently come to mind; some perhaps over many years are still remembered with fading images, in other instances some seem to have been forgotten with little trace of their being on the earth. We remember the souls of those we loved, shared part of our life's journey alongside or whose company we once enjoyed. We pray for, we honour the souls of our loved ones. In a special way we remember them in our November Masses where we find healing and hope. "Hope in Him, hold firm and take heart; hope in the Lord." (Psalm 17)

God our Father,
Your power brings us to birth,
Your providence guides our lives,
and by Your command we return to dust.

Lord, those who die still live in Your presence,
their lives change but do not end.
I pray in hope for my family,
relatives and friends,
and for all the dead known to You alone.

In company with Christ,
Who died and now lives,
may they rejoice in Your kingdom,
where all our tears are wiped away.
Unite us together again in one family,
to sing Your praise forever and ever.

Amen.
